He is Murdered by a Gang of Eight Men

WHILE ON THE PUBLIC ROAD

His Assailants Were Brutal Negroes Without Heart or Conscience-Six m' Them in Jail.

Millington, Pa., April 39. - The mystery surrounding the death of Dr. James H. Hill, of Millington, whose dead body was found early Sunday morning wedged in the shaft of his carriage, was cleared up by the terrible confession of Joshua Baynard, a colored boy of 1s years, who admitted witnessing Dr. Hill's murder but disclaimed any complicity. He implicates eight negroes named Charles Brooks, Fletcher Williams, Perry Bradshaw, Henry Burtt, Charles Emory. Fris Comegys, Moses Brown and Philip Nandy, and says that the doctor was met on the road by the negroen. He was first struck in the head with a stone; his throat was then cut and his body fastened in the shafts of Marion DeK. Smith, state comptroller of the treasury, says that the murder of Dr. Hill is probably the outcome of a disturbance at Millington on last Christmas eve, in which a colored man named Campbell lost his life. Millington is a local option town, and it is supposed that whisky was sold on this night in a certain store there where a number of white men were playing cards. colored man entered the place but was put out. In leaving he said he would return with a number of friends and "clean the place up." He did return with others, but the inmates had been notified of their intention. and as the door was broken open by the negroes every light was extinguished and a free fight occurred during which Campbell was killed. Dr. Hill was called to examine the wounds of the dead man, and in evidence his friends said that they did not appear to be of a character to have caused the man's death. The coroner's jury dis-missed the case. The colored people are very much incensed and swore ven-

BETWEEN TWO FAMILIES

The Two Ene ... Meet by Accident and the Killing is Done in Cold Blood. The Murderer's Defense.

MORBILTON, Ark., April 29. News has reached here of the killing of Dr. G. H. Horn, of Van Buren county, 40 miles in the interior, by William Hatley. An old frud has existed for several years between the Horns and Hatleys, and they have had several shooting encounters in which two or three men have been killed. Dr. Horn and William Hatley, the principals in the feud, met accidentally while riding on horseback. Hatley was a little too quick for Horn and sent a bullet through his brain. Hatley fired three shots into Horn's body after he fell from his horse. Hatley has surrendered to the authorities and claims the killing was in self-defense.

sentenced to six years' imprisonment in the Iowa penitentiary at Grinnell. Secretary Blaine, before the senate committee on commerce, opposed a con-cession allowing the French cable to land on the south Atlantic coast, on the ground that it would injure American prospects for a cable to Brazil. Iowa railways have been beaten in a suit brought by a grain firm for overcharges in freight rates. The decision sustains the rates made by the board of railway commissioners, which for some time were refused by the railroads.

MEXICANS ARE STARVING. Unless More Help Reaches Them Soon

Many Will Die. CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., April 29.-Distribution of food sent from this city to the famine sufferers at Rio Grande City began vesterday, when rations were issued to 500 people, after the committee of American citizens had completed the list of Mexicans who were actually starving. During the Issuance of rations scenes of the most pitiful description were witnessed. In many cases the Mexicans had been without food for days, and women and children were slowly starving to death. As yet nothing has reached the famine district except what was sent from Corpus Christi and Laredo, and unless further assistance is immediately rendered many of the Mexicans will die The greatest distress is reported from the country back of the Rio Grande, where many cases of Mexicans who had a few hundred cattle before the drought began are now destitute, their stock having died of starvation and left them without support.

BURNED TO DEATH. Two Women Lose Their Lives in a Fire in New York City.

New Yonk, April 29 .- A fire for which three alarms were sent out occurred in the five-story flat building called the "Cayuga," at 109-111 West Thirty-third street. It started on the first floor and was caused by the explosion of some naphtha which Dr. Patrick Briggs was using to clean a lounge in his office. The doctor was burned badly about the face and hands and Mrs. Catherine Moore, aged 72, who occupies apartments on the third floor, was also badly burned. They were taken to the New York hospital. Piremen in searching the building after the flames were extinguished found bedies of two women in the upper spartments. One is supposed to be that of a Mrs. Alexan-The other is believed to be the body of her unmarried sister.
